

Peptide Hits for Identified Proteins

Supplementary Figure 2 – Identified proteins categorized according to the number of peptide hits associated with each protein identification. An identified protein was defined as any protein with a non-zero normalized LFQ value in at least one patient sample.