

Supplementary Figure 1 – Summary of number of proteins identified overall and within the patient cohorts. The error bars represent standard deviation of protein identified with at least two unique peptides within each patient cohort.