
1 Demographic & Discipline(s)

a. What is your research role? *

- ☐ Professor / Associate professor / Assistant professor
- ☐ Postdoc
- ☐ PhD student
- ☐ Bachelor/Master student
- ☐ Librarian
- ☐ Publisher
- ☐ Industry / Government
- ☐ Other

b. What is the country of your current (or last) affiliation? *

c. What discipline(s) are you working in? *

- ☐ Physical Sciences
- ☐ Engineering & Technology
- ☐ Life Sciences
- ☐ Medicine
- ☐ Social Sciences & Economics
- ☐ Law
- ☐ Arts & Humanities

d. From which year dates your first scholarly publication?

- ☐ I haven't published (yet)
 ☐ 2011-2016
 ☐ 2006-2010
 ☐ 2001-2005
☐ 1991-2000
☐ before 1991

In the next part of the survey, we ask you to identify which tools/sites you use for various research activities.

You can always skip a question if that particular research activity does not apply to you.

If you are not an active researcher (but a librarian, publisher, funder etc), please indicate which tools you recommend.

8 Three final general questions about scholarly communication

a. What do you think will be the most important development in scholarly communication in the coming years?

b. Do you support the goal of Open Access?

☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ I don't know

c. Do you support the goals of Open Science?

(i.e. openly creating, sharing and assessing research, wherever viable)

☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ I don't know

9 If you would like to receive a summary of your responses, please leave your e-mail address below. You can also indicate whether we can contact you to further discuss how researchers decide which tools to use for scholarly communication. Your e-mail address

a. Enter your e-mail address here (if you wish)

b. Can we contact you to further discuss scholarly communication workflows?

☐ Yes ☐ No
